On November 17, 2021, at Vancouver International Airport (YVR),(b)(6) was questioned for almost two hours by two CBP officers both with the last name (b)(6) responded truthfully to each of the questions to the best of his recollection given the stress he was enduring as a result of the aggressive nature of the CBP agents. Subsequently, (b)(6) received notice that his Global Entry privileges had been revoked. 2022-TSFO-00818	8/8/2022	(b)(6)	I applied on April 28th, 2022 for a redress number (OMB control number is (b)(6)) after using my renewed USA passport for the first time traveling from my birth country Dominican Republic back to home country in United States of America. It had been ten years since 2013 when I became a US citizen so it was a new reissued passport. As I tried to explain to TSA but was cut off as I submitted via my mobile, I usually traveled with my diplomatic passport from Dominican Republic and while no longer working for the Dominican Republic Embassy in Washington DC, I was stopped at immigration in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, however they claimed it was a USA TSA issue and that I should address it here. I almost lost my flight back home to Iowa because of what I learnt was the "SSSS" mark on my ticket. Please advise as my OMB control number (b)(6) expired May 31,2022 and I have not received a reply from your DHS yet. Under separate cover in an email to DHS, I submitted my ticket stub with the "SSSS" listed on the ticket, my passport number and relevant pdf authorization for the inquiry. It is scary to me that I could be stranded somewhere if I chose to fly because your team doesn't want me in the USA, my home country. It might be important to note that back in 2017 I applied to the NSA a FOIA under issuance numbers (b)(6) (records before I became an American but was a diplomat), (b)(6) (an FYI of what occurred to me though I took no legal action) and (b)(6) (records after I was Human Rights campaigning that may have landed me on some random list(s)). I tried looking for answers as to why this is happening to me so I can avoid doing it further but at this time I just want to know why as an American citizen my life has been turned upside and why I am being treated unfairly.	8/7/2022

2022-TSFO-00848	8/16/2022	(b)(6)	Dear Sir/Madam, Thank you for taking the time to read my concerns. I really feel the need to take steps to advise appropriate people that every time I travel rather domestic or international, I am being put through screenings that I do not feel anyone could imagine until they have to experience it. This is travel in and out of anywhere I go. This also includes a birthday cruise I recently took with my spouse, upon arrival back into Galveston, I again was screened by TSA. I was taken from my cabin and walked out by security to be screened/questioned by TSA, with everyone looking like I had done something wrong. This is the feeling I have every time I am screened/questioned/investigated every single time I travel as if I was some criminal. It is very embarrassing, and to be honest inhuman to be held for hours after arriving home (to Houston) on a trip back from Iran visiting my family, as I have people kindly waiting to pick me up from the airport each time, and not even being offered any insight on why I am being held, questioned, searched EVERY time I travel, and they claim its "random checks". They offer snacks from time to time because I am being held for so long after 24-hour long trips back from Iran, but because of religious reasons they do not understand I cannot eat just anything either. The last time I was held on a trip from Houston to Iran and back to Houston, I was held at Houston airport for 4 hours when my flight arrived before they released me as they interrogated me, and my family in Houston waited at the airport to pick me up. I should mention here that I am an American and Iranian citizen both very honestly and very proudly. However, as bad as I also hate to admit this, I do have to say that I feel this has a lot to do with the color of my skin/nationality. NO ONE will give me ANY information about why this happens to me. My wife cries every time she has to witness this happening to me. I have missed my flight on more than one occasion due to the strenuous screenings I go through every time. I fly domestic and international. My wife and I both think twice to travel these days by air, or ground such as cruise in order to save embarrassment/harassment I go through. So just one simple question, why do I have to go through this embarrassment/harassment every single time, especially if this is supposed to be a random checks?	8/16/2022
